ABOUT

Latisha B. Russell is a recognized figure on the topic of child sexual abuse and trauma. Speaking from a platform of her own harrowing experiences, she has made it her mission to inspire children of sexual trauma by sharing her story of triumph through perseverance and resilience.

A voice for the voiceless, Latisha considerably navigates the, often raw, sensibilities and effects of sexual abuse with fragile victims, their parent(s) or guardian(s) and others who may need assistance in navigating this taboo, grim topic. After having experienced a “Tish Talk”, many walk away with renewed confidence and vigor knowing that they, too, can overcome the shame, the story, just as she has done!

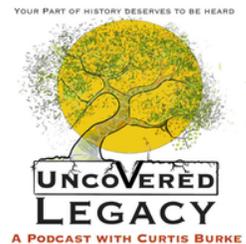

She now employs her skill set to effectively coach and mentor victims of sexual abuse and trauma. Her seminal message, there is life after... To further solidify her commitment to child sexual abuse survivors, look for Latisha’s memoir, The Naked Truth | From Pain to Triumph at latishabrusell.com or Amazon.com.
